Re: File #06-2251, #06-2250 and #06-2249

Dear Dr. Huntoon:

This will acknowledge receipt of your recent correspondence, regarding the files listed above. The Texas Medical Board makes every attempt, to fully and completely, investigate all complaints that relate to a possible violation of the Medical practice Act, to assure adequate and secure public welfare.

The information contained in your complaint was carefully evaluated; however, did not reveal a violation of the Medical Practice Act. Alleged fraudulent peer review actions taken at hospitals does not fall under our jurisdiction. You may have a civil remedy to this situation, and you may wish to contact a private attorney.

Sincerely,
